

Dr. Georgiadis Dimitris

Georgiadis Dimitris is the Camp Manager of Eleonas Refugee Camp. Holds a degree in Education and Psychology from the University of Bari (Italy). Doctor in Education from University of Ioannina. Conducted postdoctoral research at the Department of Preschool Education of the University of Thessaly. He has worked as a Career Counselor in the Second Chance Schools. Also worked as a Career Counselor at the Mental Health Center of Chalandri. His research interests focus on Education and social inequalities, social exclusion, vulnerable social groups, racism, and counseling for adults. He has published extensively in international journals on the topics of his interests and has presented studies at various international conferences. His latest book is about Migrants Integration.