

Prof. Edoardo Chiti

Profile

Full Professor of Administrative Law, Edoardo Chiti holds an LL.M. from the University College London and a Ph.D. from the European University Institute. He has written extensively in the fields of EU Administration and Administrative Law, Global Governance and Global Administrative Law, Comparative Administrative Law, all approached from a 'law in context' perspective. He is currently working on the European Green Deal and its relevance for the European integration process, as well as on the new frontiers of law and regulation in the regional/transnational horizon in the globalized legal space. His latest publications include 'Ecological Sustainability and the Law: the European Green Deal and the New Frontiers of Sustainability', edited with Andrea Giorgi (Routledge and Giappichelli, 2024); and 'Green Deal. Come costruire una nuova Europa', co-authored with Dario Bevilacqua (il Mulino, 2024).
