

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Dr. Tade Matthias Spranger

Born 1971; First (1995) and Second (1998) Juridical State Examination; Dr. iur., 1997; Research Fellow, 1999-2000; Associate Professor, Institute for Public Law, University of Bonn, Feb. 2000-Oct. 2004 and Aug. 2005-Jul. 2006; Dr. rer. pol., 2002; Visiting Professor, University of São Paulo, 2003; Member of the Ethics Committee, School of Medicine, University of Bonn, 2003-present; Visiting Professor at the University of Technology Sydney, 2004-2005; Head of the BMBF Research Group “Norm-Setting in the Modern Life Sciences”, 2006-2015; Member of the UNESCO Group of Experts „A database of legislation, guidelines and regulations in connection to ethics“ (GEObs), 2007; Habilitation and venia legendi for Public Law, European Law, International Economic Law, and Biotechnology Law, 2008; Extraordinary Professor, University of Bonn, 2009-present; Member of the Stem Cell Network North Rhine Westphalia, 2009-present; Member of the DFG Permanent Senate Commission on Genetic Research, 2010-2017; Member of the Ethics Advisory Board of the Human Brain Project, 2014-2019; Lawyer at RITTERSHAUS law firm, 2016-present; more than 450 publications.