

Marios Tokas is a PhD Candidate at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID) in International Law with a minor in International Economics. He holds a Master's in International Law from IHEID, an LLM in Public International Law and an LLB from the University of Athens. He works as a Senior Data Analyst for Arbitrator Intelligence and is appointed as an Associate Research Fellow at the Trade, Investment and Finance Program and the Program Manager at the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL).